

Cournot Centre for Economic Studies

8th international conference

Augustin Cournot, Economic Models and Rationality

December 1-2, 2005, Paris, France

Scientific Committee

President:

Robert Solow (MIT)

Members:

Masahiko Aoki
(Stanford Univ.)

Patrick Artus
(Univ. Paris)

Bernard Gazier
(Univ. Paris)

Inge Kaul
(UNDP)

Hans-Helmut Kotz
(Deutsche Bundesbank)

Thierry Martin
(Univ. Franche-Comté)

Wolfgang Streeck
(Max-Planck-Institut)

Registration

Registration is free online at:
www.centrecournot.org

Alternatively contact:

Cournot Centre
for Economic Studies
47, rue Louis Blanc,
92984 Courbevoie, France

augustin@centre-cournot.org

Tel: +33 1 49041100

Fax: +33 1 49041101

Programme

Thursday 9:30 am

Session 1 Epistemology and Economics

Thierry MARTIN (Université de Franche-Comté):

Cournot's probabilistic epistemology

Jean MAGNAN DE BORNIER (Université Aix-Marseille III):

Cournot as economist: two hundred years of relevance

Commentator: Michel ARMATTE (Université Paris IX)

Thursday 2:30 pm

Session 2 Probability Theory and Markets

Glenn SHAFER (Rutgers Business School):

Cournot's principle: the efficient market hypothesis

Bernard WALLISER (CERAS):

The role of economic models

Commentator: André ORLEAN (EHESS)

Friday 9:30 am

Session 1 Rationality and Macroeconomics

Robert AUMANN (Hebrew University of Jerusalem):

To be announced

Robert SOLOW (MIT):

Cournot on the social income

Commentator: Jacques DREZE (CORE)

Friday 2:30 pm

Session 2 Reason and Statistics

John VICKERS (Claremont Graduate University):

Probability and causality

Alain DESROSIÈRES (EHESS): Comparing the incomparable.

An essay in the sociology of statistics

Commentator: Jean-Pierre DUPUY (Stanford University)